at Bangalore has not been raised by the Vice-Chancellor or the University, and perhaps this question may be taken up only when this is done.

2) The Council Res^{n}. dt. 8.2.50 refers to the grant of a free residence. This is presumably to be granted at Mysore, the head-quarters of the University, but whether this should be the building known as the "Vice-Chancellor's House" in Chamaraja Road, which has been held in reserve ever since Janab Sultan Mohiyuddin, the previous Vice-Chancellor, vacated it in November 1948 or whether any other building is intended is not clear. The terms on which the previous Vice-Chancellors were permitted to occupy the Vice-Chancellor's house are not known, and this branch has also no information as to whether the Vice-Chancellor's house has been put to any other use since it was ordered to be kept vacant in Nov^{r}. 48 or what the latest position is. If approved, this may be ascertained from the Reg^{r}. of the University.

3) I ascertained over the phone from the Registrar, Mysore University that "the Vice-chancellor's House" at Mysore has been occupied by Sri R. Kasturiraj Chetty. A draft may be put up.
